

Kali Linux in PC (Dual Boot)

Requirements:

- PC or Laptop
- Kali Linux ISO file: <https://cdimage.kali.org/kali-2023.2/kali-linux-2023.2a-installer-amd64.iso>
- BelenaEtcher: <https://etcher.balena.io/#download-etcher>
- Pendrive (minimum 16GB)

Installation of kali linux in pc (Dual Boot) in just 8 Steps:

1. Shrink Volume:

- Open search bar and search “disk”
- Click on “create and format hard disk partition”
- Right Click on the drive from where you want to shrink the volume
- Enter size in MB
- Minimum 50GB required (50000MB)

2. Flash Pendrive with kali linux ISO:

- Open your application in my case iam using BelenEtcher
- Select the pendrive you want to flash (pendrive size should be minimum 16GB)
- Locate ISO file
- Click on flash

3. Turn off Bitlocker:

- Open search bar and search “bit locker”
- Click on bitlocker OR device encryption settings
- turn off your bitlocker

4. Insert pendrive (flashed with kali ISO):

- Flashed pendrive

5. Open BIOS setup :

- restart and press F2,F8,F12 or esc key continuously

6. Bios Configurations:

- Enable USB Boot
- Change Boot order (USB to primary)
- Disable Secure Boot

7. Boot and install Kali Linux:

- Select Graphical install

8. Installation Process:

- Press enter all the times
- Select your network type and connect with internet
- Leave domain name empty
- Enter Username and Pass
- After completing and rebooting system
- Enter username and pass that you have been created

